The Philathea class of the First Baptist church, will give an oyster supper in the store room on Main street formerly occupied by Zimmerman's book store, on Thursday afternoon and evening, December 14, 4 to 10 o'clock.

U. D. C. Meeting.

Miss Anna Crowder was hostess to the Daughters of the Confederacy on last Saturday afternoon. There was a large attendance of members and the meeting proved to be a most interesting one. Miss Katharine Carson was elected registrar of the chapter—an officer the chapter has never had before. Miss Anna Crowder and Mrs. Ethel Patterson were elected joint-leaders of the children's auxiliary and will conduct the meetings monthly this winter.

The ladies decided to present a large portrait of Robert E. Lee to the graded school on Lee's birthday anniversary, January 19, and a committee will be appointed later to arrange attendance ceremonies.

A letter was read from the state corresponding secretary stating that a large amount of linen belonging to the Old Soldiers' Home at Raleigh had been destroyed by fire incidental to the burning of the Model laundry of that city, and contributions of linen were earnestly solicited. The local chapter decided at this meeting Saturday afternoon, to give a linen shower shortly after Christmas for the benefit of this Home.

After the conclusion of business the hostess served tea and sandwiches and a cordial social hour was enjoyed.

Fassifern Happenings.

One of the most enjoyable dances ever given at Fassifern was the initial dance given by the German club Friday evening in the school auditorium. Music was furnished by the colored band. Fruit punch was served throughout the evening. Members of the German club are as follows: Misses Tempie Zollicoffer, Helen Coles, Ruth Wooten, Jessie Cary, Annie James Morgan, Caroline Yancey, Elizabeth Coleman, Claude Kelly, Blanche King, Alice Saunders, Dorothy Burney, Anna Looke Ingram, Bettie Skelding, Leonora Blount, Gladys Brown, Jane McMillan, Gwen Dolyn Buckner, Ruth McMillan, Harriet Bellamy, Marion Bethune, Mary Lybrook Lassiter, Ella Lindsay, Sallie Lou Packard, Josephine Bird. Others present at the dance Friday evening were: Mrs. McBe, Miss Shipp, Mrs. Walker, Miss Mary Preston Shipp, Miss Hersperger, Miss Hooper, Miss Thrall, Miss Sampson and Miss Graham.

Mrs. N. Buckner and daughter, Miss Gwendolyn Buckner, of Asheville, were hostesses to Miss Sampson and a number of the Fassifern girls Saturday.

Misses Leonora Blount, Harriet Bellamy, Jane McMillan, Miriam McClamery and Bettie Skelding spent Saturday in Asheville, the guests of Miss Emily McRae.

Miss Arlene Kelton spent Thanksgiving in Lancaster, S. C., with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham.

Misses Ingram, Packard, Coles and Graham were guests of Miss Ruth Wooten Thanksgiving at the Kentucky Home.

Misses Hersperger and Ella Bellamy spent Saturday in Asheville shopping.

Miss Pixley returned Sunday from Raleigh where she attended the North Carolina Music Teachers' Association. Miss Pixley was elected president of this association.

view, was the scene of a pretty home wedding when his daughter, Miss Carrie Belle Morgan became the bride of Mr. J. C. Thompson, of Goldsboro, N. C. Rev. A. I. Justice, of Hendersonville, officiating. The house was very artistically decorated for the occasion. A scheme of white and gold was carried out, quantities of yellow chrysanthemums being used in all the rooms. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was rendered beautifully by Miss Nettie Cox, the bridal party entered the room, where the impressive words of Rev. A. I. Justice made them husband and wife, Schumann's "Traumeri" being softly played during the ceremony.

Those who have witnessed the "Birth of a Nation" and many others will be interested to know that the local Daughters of the Confederacy are going to place on sale a little book of forty pages entitled "The Ku Klux Klan" by Annie Cooper Burton, a southern woman of note. It contains an interesting account of the Ku Klux Klan, its purpose and interesting incidents of its doings which have not been recorded in history. All the information is gleaned from the experiences of those who were members of the Klan.

The price of the book will be 35c and any one desiring a copy will please communicate with Mrs. Michael Schenck who will have the books in charge.

BOY SHOTS A SISTER DEAD NEAR MONROE.

Thanksgiving day near Monroe Jamie Aycock, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Aycock, was instantly killed in her home by the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of her brother, a boy of seven.
